

DANGER ■ WARNING ■ BEWARE

in World War I to the entry of the United States into the war in Europe as Great Britain's ally. Germany considered the October 1916 London Agreement a stab in the back by Talmudists ("Jews") of the world. In view of the Emancipation Edict in Germany in 1822, Germans regarded the October 1916 London Agreement as double-cross by Talmudists ("Jews") in Germany. Quota systems then existed in all other countries in Europe. There was no quota system in Germany after the Emancipation Edict of 1822 for Talmudists ("Jews").

Germans denounce Talmudists ("Jews") double-cross as unjustified stab-in-the-back responsible for transforming German victory into defeat

The Kaiser provided the World Zionist Organization with the offices for their world headquarters in Berlin. The Kaiser, his family and government officials were constantly extending assistance to Theodore Herzl. Germany extended opportunities to Talmudists ("Jews") not available in other European countries. The Kaiser himself arranged the personal meeting between the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire and Theodore Herzl.

Bleichroeder & Company in Berlin were the private bankers of the Kaiser's family for generations. They were Talmudists ("Jews"). Warburg & Company of Hamburg were the world's largest merchant bankers. They were Talmudists ("Jews"). The head of the German General Electric Company, then the world's largest industrial enterprise, was a Talmudist ("Jew"). The head of the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd steamship companies, the two largest steamship companies in the world, second only to the Cunard Line, was a Talmudist ("Jew"). Countless prominent German industrialists, bankers and merchants were Talmudists ("Jews").

The attitude of Germans towards Talmudists ("Jews") in Germany and throughout the world worsened much after the October 1916 stab in the back by Talmudists ("Jews"). Mr. Samuel Landman, the Secretary of the World Zionist Organization from 1917 to 1922 in London, wrote in his Great Britain, the Jews and Palestine, published in London in 1936, on page 6 the following appears:

"The fact that it was Jewish help that brought the U.S.A. into the war on the side of the Allies has rankled ever since in German — especially Nazi — minds and has contributed in no small measure to the prominence which anti-Semitism occupied in the Nazi programme."

The sentiments of prominent German leaders were expressed in the Jewish Daily Bulletin of New York City on October 30, 1934 in an article reprinted on page 3 from the Jewish Telegraphic Agency dispatch from Berlin which stated:

"The New Germany persists towards the complete extermination of the Jew because it was Jews who instigated the United States to enter the World War, accomplishing the defeat of Germany, and who later caused the inflation in Germany. Herr Richard Kunze, a leading Nazi Parliament figure, declared at a mass meeting in Magdeburg yesterday."

Talmudists ("Jews") throughout the world made bad matters worse on August 7, 1933 when the Talmudists ("Jews") of the world declared their "holy war" to destroy the German nation "by destroying their export trade upon which their very existence depends." Under the leadership of Mr. Samuel Untermeyer, Talmudists ("Jews") of the world declared a world boycott on all German goods and services. They asked their "Christian friends" to join their worldwide boycott of German goods and services.

Mr. Samuel Untermeyer arranged for the "International Boycott Conference" in Amsterdam in July 1933. Mr. Untermeyer was elected there the president of the "World Jewish Economic Federation." Talmudists ("Jews") throughout the world had tried in vain since 1919 to silence German resentment against Talmudists ("Jews") for railroading the United States into the war in Europe without justification or provocation by the United States as Great Britain's ally. Talmudists ("Jews") were held responsible for Germany's defeat and for every disadvantage that resulted from that defeat.

The New York Times of August 7, 1933 published the Talmudists ("Jews") declaration of their "holy war" against Germany in a three column report of Mr. Untermeyer's address to the nation from the Columbia Broadcasting Company's studio on the night of his arrival home from Europe. Mr. Untermeyer among other things stated:

" . . . holy war . . . in which we are embarked . . . it is a war which must be waged unremittingly . . . the Jews are the aristocrats of the world . . . the economic boycott against all German goods, shipping and services . . . boycott is our only really effective weapon . . . bring the German people to their senses by destroying their export trade on which their very existence depends . . . we shall force them to learn . . . it is not sufficient that you buy no goods in Germany . . . you must refuse to deal with any merchant or shopkeeper who sells any German-made goods . . . we will drive the last nail in the coffin . . . "

That statement was made on August 7, 1933 when not a hair on the head of a Talmudist ("Jew") in all Germany had been touched. Germany was plunged into a depression difficult to describe in a few words, Germany's export business suddenly ending as if by magic. Talmudists ("Jews") hoped that way to stop Germans from continuing to talk about why they lost the war. Talmudists ("Jews") in Germany were finding it difficult to live that down. Germans then felt the way Sir Winston Churchill in 1936 expressed himself about the entry of the United States into World War I in 1917.

Talmudists ("Jews") 1933 worldwide boycott against German goods and services inflames Germans towards Talmudists ("Jews")

The eminent Rabbi Maurice L. Perlman, head of the British Section of the World Jewish Congress, stated to a Canadian audience as reported by the Toronto Evening Telegram of February 26, 1940 that;

"The World Jewish Congress has been at war with Germany for seven years."

Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon delivered an address on December 20, 1951, as reported in The National Jewish Post of Indianapolis of December 28, 1951 in which he stated:

"One of the major causes for our going to war against Hitler was the persecution of the Jews in Germany."

Dr. Donal C. Blaisdell, Professor of Government at the College of the City of New York published an important document entitled American Policy for the Near East in a publication called Issues published in New York, the official organ of the American Council for Judaism, in the Fall issue in 1959, in which Dr.

Blaisdell stated;

"No minority of Irish, of German, of Polish, Italian, or Greek extraction has been able to manipulate policy to its advantage as have the Zionist leaders of American Jews. Nor does there appear to be any politically feasible means by which the American government can place the claims of its important clientele in proper perspective. Like American Jews who are presumed to be members of Israel's American clientele are never allowed to forget it, so the American government, Congress and Executive branch alike, is never permitted to free itself from the pressure, propaganda and power emanating from the same Zionist sources."

President Roosevelt railroads United States into war against Germany in 1941 through back door of Japan election pledge to Talmudists ("Jews")

President Franklin D. Roosevelt was a captive of the Talmudists ("Jews") from the time he went to Albany as Governor of the State of New York. President Roosevelt was long beholden to the Talmudists ("Jews"). The story of how President Roosevelt lied the United States into the desperate predicament, in which the United States today finds itself in the Middle East is not a long story. It is the story of how President Roosevelt railroaded the United States into the second world war.

Germany and Poland had agreed upon a formula giving Germany access across the Danzig Corridor. President Wilson in 1919 created the Danzig Corridor which separated Germany into two halves. In order to keep Germany weak, at the instigation of Talmudists ("Jews") at the Versailles Peace Conference, President Wilson cut Germany into two halves, separated by a strip of German territory granted to Poland which divided Germany into two halves.

Crossing the Danzig Corridor from western Germany to eastern Germany or vice versa was like travelling from one country to another country. The inconveniences, the delays and the annoyances to Germany and Poland had finally worked out their acceptable arrangement that eliminated a majority of German objections to the Danzig Corridor. Germany and Poland reached a basis that would serve to prevent Germany's resort to more aggressive action.

Adolph Hitler was the head of the German government at the time. Talmudists ("Jews") throughout the world opposed the peaceful adjustment between Germany and Poland of the Danzig Corridor situation. Unrestricted access of traffic between the western half and the eastern half of Germany would soon make Germany again the most powerful country in the world. Talmudists ("Jews") throughout the world dreaded the thought.

In spite of the difficulties placed in the way of reaching a solution for the Danzig Corridor problem, Germany and Poland finally agreed upon a formula. Preparations were being made to consummate their understanding in a treaty. Both Germany and Poland were satisfied the formula agreed upon served both governments.

Shortly before the agreement with Germany was to be signed, Poland secretly signed a
